SWIFT & CO'S WEEKLY PRODUCE MARKET REVIEW

Fresh eggs are in good demand. A very large percentage of current receipts, however, are not strictly fresh and do not command top prices. Storage eggs are being withdrawn from warehouses for current use to make up the deficiency in current production. Stocks are much lighter than last year and the present outlook is they will all be needed to supply export and domestic requirements, as an early, large supply of fresh eggs is not expected. Poultry receipts have been generally lighter during the week. Higher prices have been paid in the country and larger consuming centers. The butter market has shown some improvement during the week. The production is greater than at this time a year ago, but consumption is holding up well, and unless there are unusually heavy receipts of imported butter, a continued healthy butter market is expected.

WILD GEESE IN FLIGHT TO SOUTH.

There was a prolonged flight of wild geese over Paris, Saturday night. The birds flew low, and for a long time their honking could be heard, even above the din and racket caused by the celebrating Halloweeners and the surface noises below, aligned in military formation guided by a leader in a direct course for the South. The flight of geese is always heralded as indicating the approach of permanent cold weather. No one will for a moment doubt that their migration was precipitated by cold weather in the latitude from which they started. And then the cruel sportsman eventually gets them.

BOURBON COUNTY MEN TO BE TRAINED BY THE FEDERAL BOARD

The Federal Board of Vocational Education is having remarkable success in retraining disabled veterans of the World War, who are no longer fit for prewar occupations. The Board trains disabled men in any occupation or profession for which they are mentally and physically fitted. The trainees are placed in the best schools, colleges and industrial establishments and are trained until capable of accepting a position. If necessary the training covers a period of four years. At the completion of the course a position is secured for the man, and he is kept on the Government payroll until it is certain that he will make good. While in training the men receive an allowance from $1,000 to $2,000 per year, and all transportation, tuition, books, tools and training supplies are paid for by the Board.

In order that married men may take their families to the place of training, the pay for men with dependents is larger than the pay for the single men without dependents. If the men desire, they are trained at or near the place of residence. The men are not under military control nor do they have to sign up for any certain period of time. They may cease training whenever they desire.

Their compensation from the War Risk Insurance Bureau does not stop except during the time they are receiving training pay. When the man is discontinued or is retained the compensation is resumed, if the disability still exists. The following men of this county are entitled to this training and it is expected that they will shortly take advantage of the Government's most generous offer: Ben Clark Wilson, Paris; Jas. B. McCarty, Paris; Henry Mortan Lemons, Millersburg; Steve M. Fralley, North Middletown; Herman Meniffee, Paris; Thompson Parker, Paris.
